

The proposed regulations requiring the recording of all programming would place a undue burden on our company. We are a very small operation. We've been in business for more than 50 years without any complaints of any kind. I respectfully suggest that you consider the recording of all programming only after a complaint has been filed.